

Assets Under Management

$130.0 Billion as of June 30, 2022

Internal management of assets means lower investment fees. Lower fees mean more money for benefits and investing, and a lighter burden for employers and the taxpayers who fund them.

